SCHOOL HAS HALLOWEEN FESTIVITIES

Halloween is coming soon. The teachers and students have been decorating the bulletin boards. They look very pretty.

On Halloween we will have a dance in the gym. The little kids will be out trick-or-treating. We will dress in costumes for the Halloween Dance. I know everyone will have a good time.

CAMPAIGNS IN FULL SWING

Someone from each class ran for Student Council. Each person had to make a speech and everytime they went up to make a speech everybody clapped, some kids blew whistles and there were balloons popping, and all kinds of noise. Some girls threw paper on them after they made their speeches.

CAMPAIGNS ARE GREAT SUCCESS

The Student Council campaigns and election are over now. But it was a blast for everyone--even the teachers had fun. The week began with posters being made in the homeroom and then being placed in the hallway. It was exciting just to walk down the halls to class. Everything was so colorful.

The election campaign was topped off by an assembly program. There the candidates were introduced. Students cheered and threw confetti. The sound of horns and tambourines filled the air. The cameras flashed, and it was all over except for the voting when Mr. Fisher stood up and told a joke.

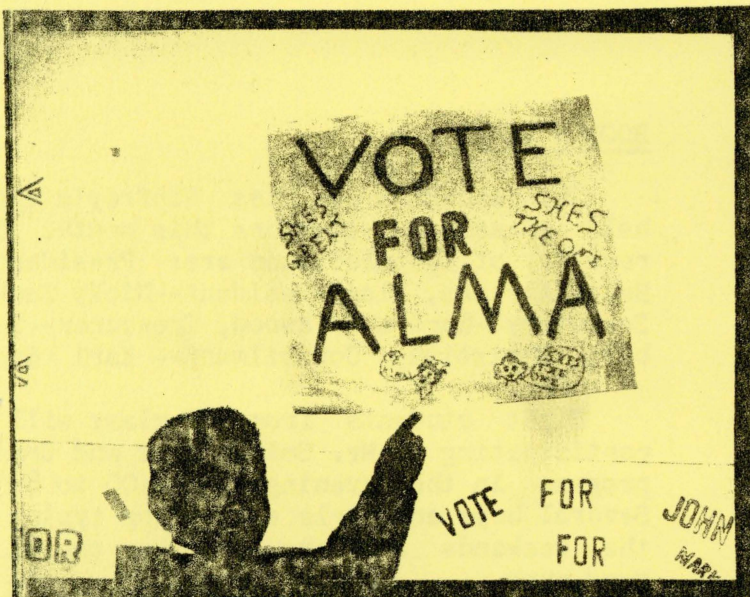

ELECTIONS

On October 11, students voted for four student council members. The one with the most votes was the President, the next highest was Vice President, then Secretary and the one receiving the fourth highest number of votes was elected Treasurer.

The four students who won were: Anna Willis -- President, Minnie Lane -- Vice President, Freddie Kirsteatter -- Secretary, Joe Omnik -- Treasurer. The students who were elected were from the departmentalized groups.

We hope you are all proud of your new officers.

FURRY FACES IN SCHOOL

Hamsters are rodents. The Institute has two of them. They were purchased in Anchorage at a pet shop. A small cage was also purchased at the same place. The cage was too small, and Maintenance made a new one out of wood and wire. The cage had to be made of wire so the hamsters would not eat their way out of the cage.

Hamsters have large pouches in the side of their cheeks. They store their food in these pouches, and they also keep their babies there. They are about the size of mice and are very furry. When they have babies, they have about 8--15 of them. Hamsters are very tame, and they can be handled, but very gently. Hamsters are very interesting to watch. Any class that would like to borrow them for observation for a day, contact Mr. Moore.

NEW METHODS IN ARITHMETIC

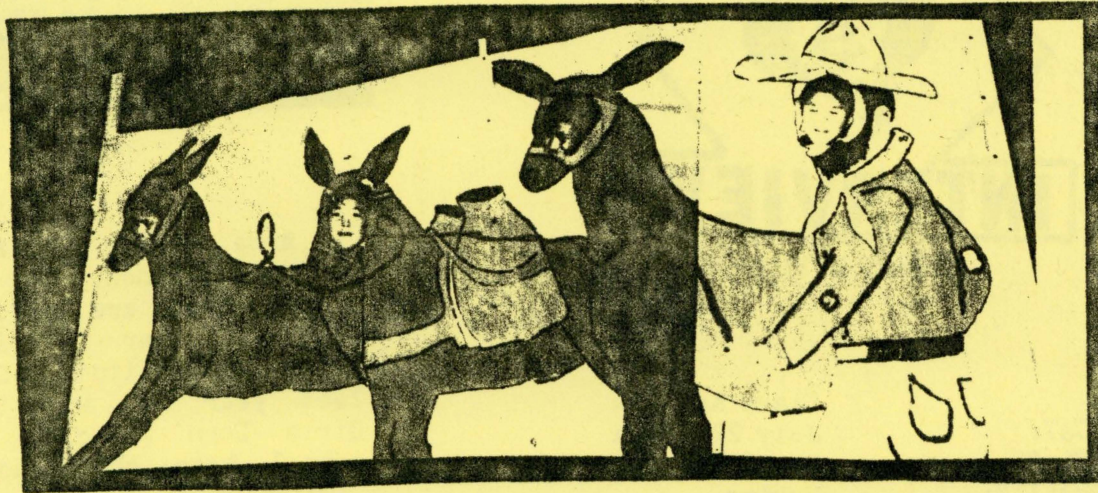

Sometimes Mrs. Smith's class has fruit parties. One day the students divided a pomegranate so they could look at the inside of it. Some of the pupils had never seen one. It was a red and brown color with a thin skin on it. When it was cut open, it was full of dark red, sweet berries. The students each received $\frac{1}{12}$ of it but wanted more. On other days, an apple and an orange were cut up. The students say fruit parties are a wonderful way to study arithmetic because they get to eat the fruit.

ROOM 6 NEWS

The students in Miss Winfrey's class held classroom elections this month. The results of the elections are: President--Helen Abruska, Vice President--Nicky Zaub, Secretary--Gordon Lockwood, Treasurer--Barbara Christian, Councilman--Karl Eva.

Eight students from the class will be participating in Mr. Smith's Arts and Crafts program in the evening from 6:00 to 8:00. Several boys and girls are taking typing the weekends and are enjoying the class very much.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM GIVEN BY STUDENTS

Mrs. Gillespie's class and Mrs. Oskolkoff's class presented a joint assembly program during the month of September. The students discussed some safety measures that could help avoid playtime accidents. Along with each measure discussed, charts (Made with the help of George Washington) were displayed.

Following the safety rules, some rhythm exercises, one using the Eskimo Yo-Yo, were presented. Then the group gave a choral reading with Bernice Zaukar reading the solo part.

The assembly ended with the singing of Mule Train. Mr. La Marr played the piano while the students sang, and three students on stage held up a poster of a mule train.

MRS. CROGAN'S CLASS ELECTS OFFICERS

There are 27 pupils in Mrs. Crogan's class. The students come from 20 different places. The class officers are: President Virginia Thompson, Vice President -- Doc Olsen, Secretary-Filma Dock, and Treasurer Eddie Lisbourne.

Filma Dock went to Mt. Edgecumbe Hospital and stayed nine days. The class is glad to have her back in school.

MRS. LAMARR'S HOMEROOM NEWS

Mrs. LaMarr's class is really happy with their candidates, Joseph Omnik and Min Lane, won the Student Council election. They thank all who voted for them. They will be good workers.

The class officers in Mrs. LaMarr's homeroom are: President--Daisy Bodfish, Vice President--Clara Kowunna, Secretary--G. Cleveland.

The Social Studies class is going to have a voting booth and a ballot box in the room the last week in October. They will have a mock election contest for the fictional presidential candidates. Every student will vote for either Humphrey, Nixon or Wallace. They want to find out who the students of Wrangell Institute would elect President.

NEW TEACHERS COME TO WRANGELL

There is a new teacher here at the Institute. Her name is Mrs. E. Moore. She came from Goodwill, Oklahoma. She went to college at West Texas State University in Canyon, Texas. Her degree in college was Bachelor of Science. She now teaches English here at Wrangell Institute.

SIGNS ARE EVERYWHERE

Inside the girls dorm the students hung signs up. The signs tell which students are running for student council. Some of the signs are pretty and colorful. Some are funny. Everyone in the school made signs, and everywhere we go we see a sign.

GOING TO THE SCHOOL STORE

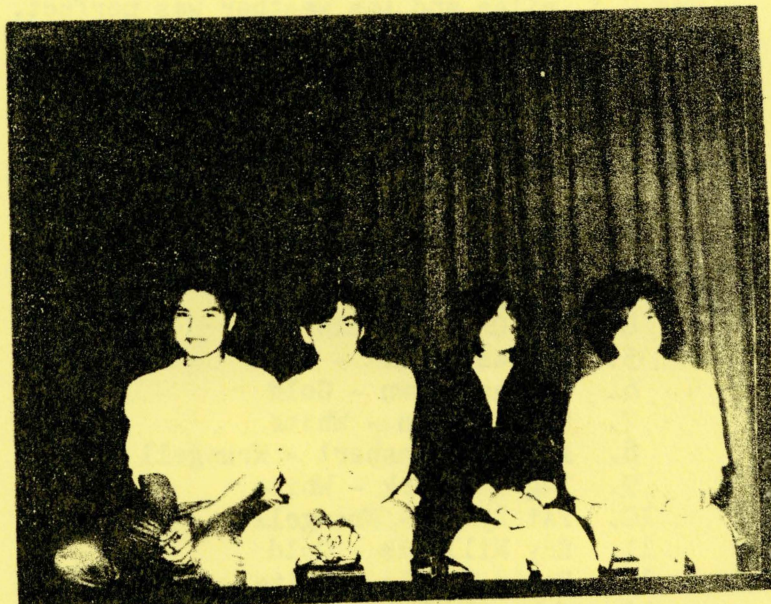

On Friday nights students go to the school store at 6:00 p.m. At 4:00 p.m. students check out money for the school store.

Some kids go to the shelf and have to wait thirty minutes on the bench. Some girls and boys get tired of waiting and go outside and forget about the school store, so some girls and boys miss the store. I hope you don't miss it.

STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS HELD OCTOBER 11

On Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock the students elected four Student Council members. The following students ran for election: Anna Willis, Freddie Kirsteatter, Alma Agnasagga, Fred Washington, Norman Henry, Gordon Lockwood, Albert Frank, Peter Joseph, John Mark, Alexie Michael, Joseph Omnik, Minnie Lane, Bernice Zaukar, William Henry, Virginia Thompson, Clara Lockwood.

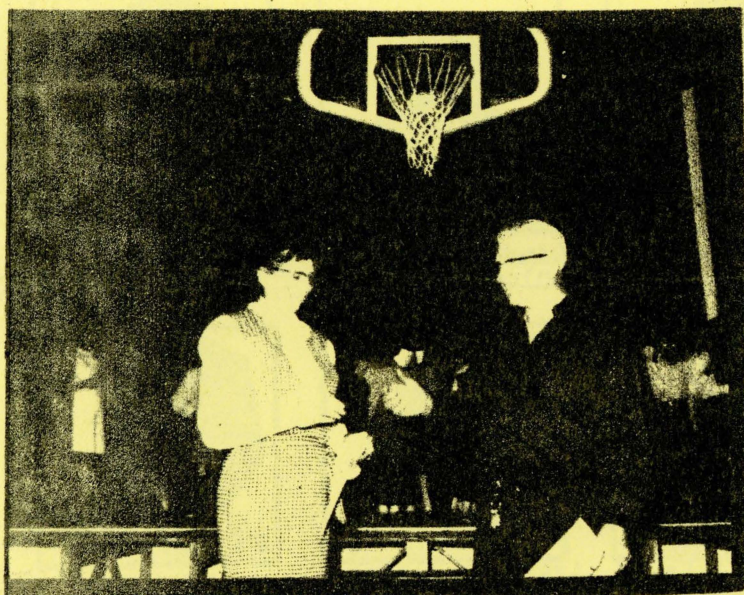

At 4:00 the same afternoon, an assembly was held to announce the four students who were elected to serve as officers of the student council. The results of the election were: President -- Anna Willis, Vice-President -- Minnie Lane, Treasurer -- Joe Omnik, Secretary -- Freddie Kirsteatter.

STUDENTS TAKE RAINBOW FALLS HIKE

A group of students went of the Rainbow Falls hike. They enjoyed going there, but the hills are very high and sometimes steep and made them very tired. The falls are very pretty and high.

The students were supposed to meet at a certain time and be back at a certain time. After they came back, they had roll call by the road to make sure that the students didn't get lost. When they returned to the school, they signed what time they came back.

MRS. DOW RECEIVES AWARD

Mrs. Dow received an Incentive Award on October 4. The award was presented to her during an assembly program by Mr. Haaseth. The award was for the suggestion that radiators and pipes in hallways be covered and that sand be kept in locations where employees walking to and from the buildings would be able to spread the mixture whenever needed to keep from slipping on icy walkways.

Shadows black as ink,
Fire light burning, burning
In the night with a yellow blink.

Elves in colors or black and gold,
Dancing about their queen,
It looks so very pretty,
I like its scene.

Black and gold, black and gold,
Nothing in between.
When the world turns black and gold,
Then it's Halloween!
